

Poker770 is proud to announce the launch of the 2011 Team770 Europe.

London, 9th December 2010 – Poker770 is delighted to have pros of the highest calibre onboard. The line up is packed with international success, experience and charisma:

The enigmatic Paco Torres aka “El Tren” started playing Texas Hold`em around four years ago and in this short time, according to PocketFives , has become a top 10 player. He is now a household name on both the national and international circuit. He has won the Spanish Championship (CEP) three times in a row and is currently in 5th place on the Spanish Poker Tour (SPT)

The Belgian Jamel Maistriaux shot to stardom in only a few short years and has reaped some rewards on the live circuit. In his first live competition, at the 2007 Belgian Championship, he won the title in addition to over €300,000 prize money. There was great success in Las Vegas and in the Irish Winter festival in 2008 and 2009 respectively. Joining the Team770 Europe will see him add another string to his bow and contribute to the success of the team.

Cynthia Foresti Axarlis has burst onto the scene and joined the Team770 Europe on the back of a second place finish in “Les First Ladies de Cannes”. May her enthusiasm and recent results motivate the team for the future.

Julien Becquart has achieved more than he could possibly have hoped for in his short career as a pro poker player and is eager to fulfil his potential on the Team.

Coralie Nauder is making a name for herself on the international poker circuit. Starting out as the presenter for the Belgian Poker Championship, she decided to give playing a go, and she has never looked back. Her success speaks for itself.

Poker770 would like to wish all its pro players well and is extremely confident of becoming a major player on the European circuit with this team and is always on the look-out for new poker talent and hopes to turn players into stars on the international poker scene. Poker770 has discovered and developed players such as Vanessa Hellebuik, G Darcourt and Sabrina Dedar to name but a few.

Everyone has a chance of making it pro with Poker770! You could be next!
