

Play cash cash with Cyril Hanouna on Poker770

March 2010 – Once again the famous online poker site Poker770 is offering an opportunity which can only make a poker amateur happy: play cash cash with Cyril Hanouna, the new ambassador of the poker room. He started in the EPT Deauville and defends his colours with enthusiasm. A bounty tournament against this new star will take place in the lobby every other Friday as of the 26th February. Any amateurs will be able to win the jackpot, with a prize pool of up to £770. The basic prize is £300, but £450 is also there to be won, because of a £150 bonus every time a player manages to knock Cyril out of the tournament or to make him re-buy.

As the buy-ins for the satellite qualifier freeze-outs are only £3, they are suitable for all budgets and take place at the lobby every day. It is a great opportunity to polish your poker game and match up against an excellent player, before winning many different free packages offered by the website for all the most prestigious international poker tournaments.
